Friends of Wilton Youth

Lance Curtis gave a presentation at our last meeting on Friends of Wilton Youth (FoWY), a new non-profit group in the community. The group's mission statement says that the purpose of FoWY is to support community youth programs and organizations in and around the Wilton community. The association will assist in helping to support and maintain Wilton community schools, extracurricular programs and the various youth organizations by raising funds for the benefit of those local groups. Their first fund-raising effort, a drive-thru tri-tip dinner for 4, was a major success. They are planning to hold a poker tournament in May at AMG. For information on the group and meeting times, call 916-208-4201 or 916-214-8041.

12-Gun Raffle

Norm Wagner is working on the 12-gun raffle. The plan is to sell 500 tickets at $50.00, and have a weekly (on Thursdays) drawing for three months. The twelve guns (variety of shotguns and rifles) would be valued in the $1,000 range. The drawings would not begin until all tickets are sold. Norm will administrate the raffle. This is going to take a commitment on the part of our members! We all need to try to sell at least a few tickets. The raffle would be a big financial boost to the club.
